

ARAB COMMUNITY IN SACRAMENTO

Interviewee: Paul Almaz

Interviewer: Viviane Doche
Sacramento History Center
January 7, 1984

INDEX

SIDE A

0 Introduction
:38 Immigration to United States: June 1947 from
Damascus, Syria
2:04 Businesses Started
5:54 First Residences
6:39 Family and Children
7:36 Arab Friends in Sacramento when Arrived
8:53 Robla Club
10:28 Church and Priest
12:33 Older Families and their Businesses
14:10 Older Businesses that Catered to Arab Needs
17:13 Arab Men's Marriages to American Women
18:28 Acceptance of American Wives in Arab Community
19:33 The Naify Family
22:36 The Faris Family
23:38 The Kasis Family
25:59 Other Arab Businesses
26:40 Past Arab Activities: New Year's Eve Party

INDEX

SIDE B

0 New Year's Eve Party (cont.): Entertainment -
(music)

INDEX

SIDE B (cont.)

:55 Activities with Church: St. George's Melkite
Byzantine Catholic Church, and Antiochian Orthodox Mission

4:59 Differences in Churches

6:48 Board Members of the Antiochian Mission

7:17 Non-Religious Arab Clubs: Arab-American Club and ADC (American-Arab Anti-Discrimination Committee)

11:41 Present Arab Businesses

18:03 Relations and Activities with Other Cultural Groups: Greeks and Armenians

20:21 Acceptance of Arabs in Community

22:29 Purpose of ADC

28:51 Efforts in Community to Maintain Arab culture